Where Your Wedding Comes Alive

Cave Hill Creek

Thank you for considering Cave Hill Creek for your wedding day

Cave Hill Creek's stunning bush and lake location, surrounded by the mountains of Mount Cole State Forest, offers a unique and intimate setting for your ceremony, photographs and reception.

The extensive gardens and grounds, open pavilion and function room, both featuring large bluestone fireplaces and lake views, all offer a perfect setting day and night.

During your function, guests will likely meet numerous kangaroos, wallabies, echidnas and a wide variety of Australian birdlife - even spot a platypus in the lake.

We work together with you to ensure your day reflects your own personality and style.

The Venue

From the moment your guests arrive, the whole property becomes yours, the lake, the forests, the lodge, and every hidden photo-spot.

You'll say "I do" against a backdrop of reflections over water and mountain silhouettes, then wander down winding paths for portrait moments amongst the gumtrees.

As evening falls, your reception unfolds in a space warmed by bluestone fireplaces and cascading views of the lake, laughter, music, candlelight and local wine flowing.

With your loved ones staying just steps away in comfy rooms and glamping tents, whilst you absorb the event from your complimentary glamping bridal suite.

There's no rush to leave, just a night of celebration under the Milky Way.

Capacity

Intimate yet grand, the grounds accommodate up to 140 guests for a sit-down dinner or 250 cocktail-style, all within your boutique, countryside estate.
